BIBLIOTHECA·BODLEIANA·

Gentlemen,

THE many Favours I have received from you the Members of this renowned University, hath hitherto supported my hopes in the midst of my Misfortunes, and thro' the continuance of your kindness it is, that I hope to see a speedy end put to all of them. I am therefore encouraged once more to present you with another Auction out of that Stock, which was gathered chiefly for your sakes and service, and which hath already in part been dispersed among you (as I have reason to think) to your satisfactions. This way of Sale is now so well known and generally approved, that I need not here endeavour to recommend it. And tho' this present Catalogue be not so large as the two former, yet you will find it for its rare and useful Books not much inferior to either of them. But you are best able to judge for your selves. I remain

Gentlemen,

Your very humble Servant,

Ric. Davis.

THis Sale will begin on Monday the 25*th* of June, 1688. At Mr. Davis Ware-houſe near unto St. Mary's Church in Oxon, from the Hour of Eight in the Morning to Eleven, and from One in the Afternoon to Five, continuing daily until all the Books are ſold; and for conueniency of all Perſons in the City of London, Univerſity of Cambridge, or elſewhere, that pleaſe to ſend their Commiſſions containing the Page and Number in the Catalogue of the books deſired, with the names and places of their abode, and where the books are to be delivered, and the Money received, they ſhall be managed faithfully according to their reſpective Orders; the books will be expoſed to view daily from the Hours of Eight to Eleven in the Morning, and from Two to Six in the Evening, for one whole Week preceding the Sale. And that all Gentlemen Buyers will be pleaſed to give in their Names, and of what Colleges or Halls they belong to, to the end that every Perſon reſpectively may have Juſtice done him, in the Buying, as alſo in the Delivery of the Books ſo bought.

Conditions of Sale.

I. That he who bids moſt is the Buyer, but if any difference ariſe, which the Company cannot decide, then the book or books ſhall forthwith be again expoſed to Sale.

II. That all the books in this Catalogue, not otherwiſe expreſſed (for ought we know) are perfect, but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe before they be taken away, the Buyer ſhall ſhall have his choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That the Money for the book or books ſo bought, is to be paid, by the Buyer within one Month after the Auction is ended, at the place where they are ſold, where upon payment thereof the book or books ſhall be delivered for the Month aforeſaid.
